Why
RUSSIA WILL NOT
AMERICA

FOR decades now, the prospect of war between Russia and the United States has continually heightened and lessened.

Many who claim to be authorities on prophecy assure people a war involving Russia and the United States, Canada and England is prophesied in Ezekiel 38.

The United States, Britain and other democracies of north-western Europe, they recognize, are the nations descended from the so-called lost Ten Tribes. Therefore, they conclude, the prophecy of Ezekiel 38 foretells a military invasion of the North American continent from the

Why Russia Will Not Attack America

You may have been told that Bible prophecy predicts war between the Superpowers. It's time you understood the truth about Ezekiel 38 and 39.

Soviet Union. Others claim it foretells an imminent Soviet invasion of the Middle East. But this is not what the prophecy says.

What Ezekiel 38 does foretell is truly astounding. Let's understand it. But first, let's remember that the peoples of both the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. are cautious. The Soviet people are patient, and the English-speaking nations in a crisis "fly into a calm" rather than act hastily. And now . . .

Time Sequence of Prophecy

Ezekiel's message is for our day—a prophetic warning for America and Britain, now!

To understand the time, the place and all the facts of the prophecy of Ezekiel 38, we need to begin at the first chapter of Ezekiel's prophecy and read the book clear through.

When we do this, we find a time sequence flowing through the book.

Let us skim through it very briefly.

Notice, in the very first verse, Ezekiel was among the Jewish captives who had been taken from Judah to the river Chebar. It was in the fifth year of the captivity of King Jehoiachin that this prophecy began coming to Ezekiel through visions.

It is a prophecy. Ezekiel was being shown things far into the future.

Notice, the prophecy was inspired and written after Judah's captivity began—about 130 years after the House of Israel had been taken captive to Assyria. The advance guard of the House of Israel already had begun to arrive in the British Isles before Ezekiel's vision and writing.

Yet, Ezekiel is a prophet to the House of Israel. (Not to be confused with the modern Jewish nation of Israel. These Jewish people are actually descendants of ancient Judah.) His prophecy applies to the far future—not to the captivity of ancient Israel, which had occurred more than 130 years before he wrote.

Notice Ezekiel's message, a prophecy for the future, is primarily for the House of Israel (Ezek. 2:3; 3:1, 4-7).

In chapter 3, verse 17, Ezekiel is set a watchman to warn the House of Israel.

Message to Israel, Not Judah

Notice! Beginning chapter 3: After the prophet “eats the roll”—that is, receives the prophetic warning message—he is to “go speak unto the house of Israel”—not to the Jews among whom he dwelt.

Remember he is already among the captives of Judah. But the Eternal says to him, “Go, get thee unto the house of Israel” (verse 4).

As we have often explained to readers of The Plain Truth magazine, the 12 tribes of Israel had long before this divided into two nations—the 10 tribes being the House of Israel, while Judah, Benjamin and Levi composed the House of Judah, who, only, were “Jews.” For the benefit of those readers who do not understand this vital distinction—a veritable “key” without which the prophecies cannot be opened to understanding—the special book The United States and Britain in Prophecy is available and upon request, a copy will be sent free.

The Jewish people of today are descended from the House of Judah. But the white, English-speaking people of the United States and Britain are the leading “birthright” tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh, heads of the 10 tribes of the House of Israel.

Ezekiel’s message is for our day—and it is, therefore, a message for America and Britain, NOW!

Notice chapter 4. The prophet is to place before him a tile, and trace upon it the city of Jerusalem, and “lay siege” against it. The war pictured was against Jerusalem, capital of Judah. But “this” (verse 3) “shall be a sign to the house of Israel.” Then follows the well-known key to the “day for a year” method of reckoning prophecy.

Continue chapter 5: “. . . For,” comes the warning message from the Eternal, “thereof shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel” (verse 4). Notice, this is to portray vividly a warning of some FUTURE destruction upon the House of Israel! Not upon Judah, already largely conquered by Nebuchadnezzar. But upon Israel—the 10-tribed nation who had gone into its first and original captivity 130 long years before! The warning is not of the captivity already so far back in history. It says “thereof shall a fire come” upon Israel! It is a prophecy relating to a future destruction and captivity.

No such destruction and captivity has ever yet come to the House of Israel since this was written. Therefore it is still in the future—in our time. It is a warning to Britain and America—now!

A Captivity Yet Future

Notice more of this warning:

“A third part of thee [America-Britain] shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee; and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds [in captivity being removed from our own lands and scattered over the world] . . .” (verse 12).

Coming to chapter 6, the local scene of the vision shifts to the mountainous land of ancient Israel, in the Middle East—but the message is for America and Britain, today.

Will we heed it? God help us to wake up!

Listen: “. . . Behold, I, even I,” says the Eternal God (verses 3, 5-7), “will bring a sword [invasion] upon you, and I will destroy your high places. . . . And I will lay the dead carcasses of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars. In all your dwelling-places the cities shall be laid waste [nuclear bombing]. . . . and ye shall know that I am the Lord.”

Just a small remnant shall escape and be spared (verse 8). These are described in Luke 21:36.

Continue: “Thus saith the Lord

God . . . Alas for all the evil abominations of [not Judah, but] the house of Israel! for they shall [not did, in the captivity 130 years before Ezekiel wrote, but shall] fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence” (verse 11).

The Time Is Yet Future

This is not a popular message. You probably have never heard it before. The preachers and teachers of prophecy almost unanimously will rise up to deny this warning message—to apply it to a different time or people. But the warning is from the Eternal God, and it is sure! The reader will do well to heed.

Notice the time. It’s important.

“All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water” (chapter 7, verse 17). “Howl ye; for the day of the Lord is at hand. . . . Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man’s heart shall melt; and they shall be afraid . . .” (Isa. 13:6-8). Plainly, the time is the “Day of the Lord”—yet in the immediate future!

Continue in Ezekiel: “They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed: their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the Lord . . .” (Ezek. 7:19). Now compare that with Zephaniah 1:14-15, 17-18: “The great day of the Lord is near. . . . That day is a day of wrath. . . . And I [the Eternal] will bring distress upon men. . . . Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord’s wrath. . . .” Both are speaking of the same time—a time shortly ahead of us now, in this present generation!

“Wherefore,” continues verse 24 (Ezek. 7), “I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to cease. . . . Destruction cometh; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none. . . . Then shall they seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest” (verses 25-26).

Yes, when this comes, our people finally will cry out for a true prophet or minister of the Eternal God—but it will be too late! For then shall have come the time spoken of by the prophet Amos, when there shall be a famine of hearing the words of the Eternal—(Amos 8:11)—an end of true gospel preaching. Already the people and their paid ministers have turned their eyes and ears from God’s law.

Notice chapter 11 of Ezekiel’s prophecy. It is a message addressed to the House of Israel (verse 5). “. . . I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord God. And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. Ye shall fall by the sword. . .” (verses 8-10). When? It is future from the time Ezekiel wrote, and it has not yet happened since then. God says it will happen!

Chapter 12, verse 11: “. . . they shall remove and go into captivity.” It is yet future—and it is the House of Israel.

When? “And they shall know that I am the Lord, when I shall scatter them among the nations, and disperse them in the countries” (verse 15). The expression “They shall know that I am the Lord” is used repeatedly through the book of Ezekiel—always referring to the time of the Second Coming of Christ, and Israel’s final restoration back to her original land. Many prophecies show that the modern nations descended from ancient Israel are to be scattered in this latter-day captivity when Christ comes to restore them back to that land.

People Won’t Believe It

Always the true prophets and ministers of God have stood almost alone and opposed by the overwhelming majority in Israel. That is Israel’s history of old. It is true today.

The 13th chapter shows the declaration of the popular ministry of this day in Israel—in America and Britain.

“Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel. . . Woe unto the foolish prophets, that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! O Israel, thy prophets are like the foxes in the deserts. Ye have not gone up into the gaps, neither made up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the Lord” (verses 2-5). It is speaking of the soon-coming “Day of the Lord”—not some ancient event! “. . . they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there was no peace. . .” (verse 10).

Our nations were not chosen for special favors. We were chosen for a service and righteous life we have failed to perform. Every time Israel of old disobeyed God, departed from his laws and ways and went into the pagan customs (as we have done today, actually deceiving ourselves by calling those customs “Christian”), they were invaded and conquered. Has God changed?

Ezekiel catalogs our sins—our customs and ways that seem right in our eyes but that are contrary to God’s laws and an abomination in his sight. Some of them he mentions in the 8th chapter.

And chapter 22: “Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast profaned my sabbaths,” says the Eternal (verse 8). “. . . thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord. . . And I will [not did, but will] scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy filthiness out of thee” (verses 12, 15).

Chapters 25 through 32, Ezekiel digresses to prophesy against a number of foreign gentile nations who have come in direct contact with Israel. In Ezekiel 33:11, the prophet returns to pleading with the House of Israel. “. . . Turn ye, turn ye,” God pleads, “from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?” Here, too, Ezekiel is again set a watchman to warn Israel—AMERICA AND BRITAIN TODAY—at the time when this prophesied foreign sword is coming. Ezekiel wrote the message—but it remains for us to whom God has revealed it today to actually shout and proclaim it to the people. God help us to be faithful in this solemn and grave commission!

In the 34th chapter, God tells him to prophesy against the ministers of our land. They have fed themselves and not the flocks. They have preached what people wanted to hear (II Tim. 4:3-4) in order to get their salaries.

The Coming of Christ!

And now the Eternal inspires the prophet to come to the solution.

“Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock. . . Behold, I, even I, will both search my sheep, and seek them out. . . And will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day [the Day of the Lord—yet future]. And I will. . . gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them [spiritual food] upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country” (Ezek. 34:10-13).

Christ himself—for he is the Eternal—shall come and rescue our people, not only from the coming captivity and dispersion, but from the false Babylonish teachings that have been palmed off to our people cloaked as “Christianity.” He will then set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people Israel (Isa. 11:11). The spiritual blindness shall then be removed, and all Israel shall be saved! (See Romans 11:25-26.) The kingdom of God shall be established. Men shall be tired of their own ways, and seek God’s ways—and his law shall go forth of Zion (Mic. 4:2-3). And the nations shall find PEACE!

In the 36th chapter of Ezekiel, the Eternal addresses the House of Israel: "Prophecy unto the mountains of Israel . . . Thus saith the Lord God to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken. . . . But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to come. . . . And I will multiply men upon

Both Houses of Israel United

In chapter 37, the first part pictures the "valley of dry bones." This represents (verse 11) the whole House of Israel—including Judah. It has a dual significance. It pictures the rebirth and resurrection of Israel as a nation, from captivity, dispersion and slavery.

It pictures, too, the literal bodily resurrection of the individual who had already died, after which the knowledge of the truth—spiritual knowledge—shall be revealed, and he shall be converted, and God's Spirit shall enter within, and he shall be saved.

Beginning with the 15th verse, the illustration of the two sticks shows the two houses, or nations, Israel and Judah, being once more united, under Christ at his Second Coming, in the land of Israel.

"... Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will take the children of Israel [from the British Isles and America—from a position of wealth and affluence as recent victors in the world war? No, but] from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: and I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all: neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions. . . . And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt . . . they, and their children, and their children's children for ever. . . . Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant . . ."—the New Covenant (verses 21-23, 25-26).

At Peace in the Holy Land

Notice, now the story flow—the time sequence: The prophet has carried us through the sins of his people, the coming invasion and captivity and dispersion, and the coming of Christ as Deliverer to restore the fortunes of Israel. We have come to the time when both the Houses of Israel and Judah shall be reunited into one nation, rescued from captivity and dispersion and regathered again in their land, once again made prosperous, having learned their lesson, now living God's way, under his laws, enjoying his richest blessings, both material and spiritual!

And now we come to chapter 38. This chapter finds Israel restored in her land—"the land that is brought back from the sword" (verse 8). We find Israel now at rest, dwelling safely, totally unprepared for war—having "neither bars nor gates" (verse 11), in the desolate places of the land of Israel, now inhabited (verse 12)—yes, inhabited (same verse) by the people who are once again restored to great material prosperity—"which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land."

Notice it!

This prophecy does not picture the British Isles and America. It pictures the Holy Land. It pictures all 12 tribes having been taken there from a dispersion and captivity and slavery, gathered out of the nations where they had been scattered, now once again beginning to prosper.

Notice it: The time of this prophecy is after—not before, but after—the Second Coming of Christ—after the great Deliverer has come and rescued our people and restored us to the land of Israel—after Israel and Judah are reunited. Certainly the "latter years" (verse 8).

The place of this battle is not Britain or America—it is the Holy Land. ". . . thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, and the wastes shall be builded: and I will multiply upon you man and beast . . ." (verses 1, 4, 8, 10-11).

Yes, the House of Israel is pictured returning to its original land, not from a condition of wealth and prosperity from Britain and America—not in the position of a people victorious in a great world war—but as a slave and captive people, scattered through the nations of the world. All prophecies picturing this rescue and regathering of Israel at Christ's coming give us the same prophetic picture.

Israel, which have been always waste [or “once a perpetual waste”—Moffatt translation]” (verse 8). The “mountains of Israel” is an expression used all through the book of Ezekiel, and refers to the literal mountainous land of ancient Israel.

Our people shall have regained so much wealth that Gog and allies shall come to “take a spoil” (verse 13), “to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil.”

Christ's Reign Contested

But this very fact—that this invasion will not come until after the Second Coming of Christ—will seem preposterous to many, at first thought.

That is because we have been accustomed merely to assume things that are not true. We have blindly assumed that when Christ comes, there will be no opposition. Every person and power on earth, we have thought, will simply submit meekly and instantly to him and his power. But that is not true!

Some gentile nations understandably shall not submit until forced to. The final restoration of the Roman Empire shall be subdued and conquered at a battle commonly called “Armageddon.” But the populous nations of Eurasia that the Almighty God up to this point has not dealt with shall still have to be brought to submission.

“Gog” Identified

“Gog” in the land of “Magog” is the vast regions of the U.S.S.R. in northern Eurasia extending from the Baltic to the Pacific. “Meshech” is Moscow, “Tubal” is Tobol’sk.

Notice the allies who come with them in this future battle. You will find “Gomer,” “Togarmah,” “Magog,” “Meshech,” “Tubal” identified in Genesis 10 as the sons of Japheth, father of the Eurasians. Ethiopia and Phut (mistranslated Libya) are descended from Ham.

Therefore, this prophecy of Ezekiel 38 shows who shall finally succeed in marshaling peoples of each major race into a gigantic invasion upon our people.

When God begins to rule the world, through Christ—with his chosen people restored to prosperity in the land of Israel, the very center of the land surface of the earth (verse 12, Moffatt translation)—this great Eurasian union of nations shall finally be tempted to use their mighty air force. “Thou shalt ascend,” the Eternal says, “and come like a storm [in the air], thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land . . .” (verse 9). There shall be so many planes then that they will hide the sun from the ground below, like a huge dark shadow!

The End of World Conquest

The House of Israel—our peoples—shall not be armed or prepared. “. . . In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, shalt thou not know it?” asks the Eternal. “And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts [due north of the land of ancient Israel], thou, and many people [allies] with thee . . . a mighty army; and thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me [note the purpose], when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes” (verses 14-16).

But our people shall not have to fight in that battle. We shall have learned by then that God fights our battles for us!

“And it shall come to pass at the same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord God, that my fury shall come up in my face” (verse 18). “So that . . . all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence . . .” (verse 20). It is after Christ’s coming!

“I will summon an utter panic against him [Gog], says the Lord the Eternal, till every man in his host shall draw the sword against his fellow; I will punish him with pestilence and bloodshed, I will rain on him and his hordes and all the nations in his train an overpowering flood, with hail-stones, fire, and brimstone. I will let all the nations see my might and dread divinity—to teach them that I am the Eternal” (verses 21-23, Moffatt).

Notice, these nations do not see and recognize the dread divinity, the might and power of the Eternal Christ, even after he has returned. He has to teach them that HE IS THE ETERNAL!

The 39th chapter shows in more detail the result of this great battle, in which Christ, with supernatural power, causes five sixths of these armies to be slain.

Notice, again, the time: “Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel [Israel and Judah], and will be jealous for my holy name. . . . When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies’ lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations; then shall they KNOW that I am the Lord their God . . .” (Ezek. 39:25, 27-28)!

Notice again! At Christ’s Second Coming, he shall gather the 10-tribed House of Israel—our British and American people—out of our enemies’ lands, not out of our own land of wealth and power, North America and the British Isles and Commonwealth.

And then, beginning chapter 40, the remainder of the book of Ezekiel reveals the ideal theocracy—God’s new order of divine government upon earth—the permanent forms and institutions that shall express the ideal relation between God and man.

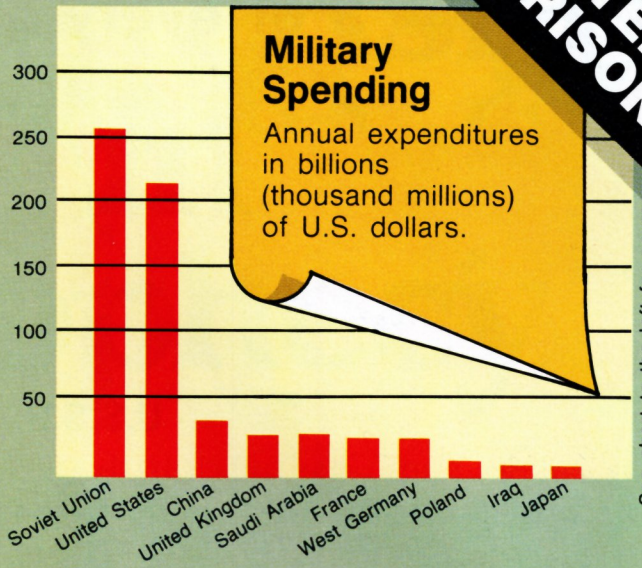

In the meantime, our job is to WARN America and Britain and many other nations of what lies ahead. To shout the warning to come out of Babylon (Rev. 18:4), that those who heed may find God now—may come under his divine protection (Ps. 91), and by a true Spirit-filled life obedient to God’s ways and laws, be prepared to become a ruler or a teacher in Christ’s soon-coming kingdom! □

The character of the peoples inhabiting what is now called the Soviet Union has been shaped by a historical fabric interwoven with a rich culture and endured tragedy. From the Mongol conquests of the 13th century, the Pugachev Rebellion of 1773 and Napoleon's invasion in 1812, to the First and Second World Wars and the Russian Revolution and Civil War, invasion and internal strife have molded a mindset of passionate patriotism and suspicion of foreigners.

RUSSIA AND SOUTH ASIA

3 of every 5 people live here

W E CAN KNOW!

More than one third of the Bible is prophecy—most of it for our day!

Puzzled geopolitical analysts wonder what will happen next in the volatile South Asia region. They simply do not know what ultimately will become of Iran, of Afghanistan, Pakistan, India and adjoining nations. But you can know!

Astounding Prophecies

International attention continues to be riveted on turbulent South Asia. That vast region—stretching from the Persian Gulf to the South China Sea—is in a precarious state of ferment and unrest.

Yet how many know that the future of the peoples of the vast South Asia region was recorded millennia ago in the pages of the Bible? The stage is now set for the unfolding of an astounding sequence of Bible prophecies.

Turn, first, to the book of Revelation. Here is revealed a great end-time political ruler referred to as the “beast” (chapter 17). The beast will be a superdictator over a coming European confederation of 10 nations—a rebirth of the Roman Empire. This European power will eventually establish its capital and religious headquarters at Jerusalem (Dan. 11:45).

Daniel says that this European conqueror will become troubled by “tidings out of the east and out of the north” (11:44). There can be little doubt about the source of the beast’s trouble. East and north of Palestine are Russia, China and other nations of the vast Asian continent.

The clear implication of this verse is that a great Eurasian alliance will ultimately arise at or near the end of the Great Tribulation (mentioned by Daniel in chapter 12 and in Matthew 24:21) and will enter into a confrontation with the restored Roman Empire. Much of Asia will eventually be marshaled into a great end-time, communist-dominated confederacy—encompassing nearly one half of the earth’s population!

South Asia in Prophecy

Bible prophecy reveals the startling future of the nations and peoples on the outer rim of Asia!

These atheist-led Asian armies are also described in Ezekiel, chapters 38 and 39, where elements of those forces are prophesied to invade the Holy Land when all 12 tribes of Israel have returned.

Misunderstood Prophecy

Some Bible scholars assert falsely that these prophecies of Ezekiel were fulfilled anciently. They never were. Others believe they are about to occur—but some years before Armageddon. Both views are erroneous.

The events of Ezekiel 38 and 39 are without question still future—for the “latter days” (38:16) and “latter years” (38:8). Moreover, Ezekiel 38:14 describes the time setting as being “in that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely.” This is certainly not the situation in the State of Israel today! The Israel described by Ezekiel is a nation that dwells in security, in unwalled villages, totally unprepared for war (38:8, 11, 14). Read it for yourself! These circumstances will be extant only after the coming of the Messiah, when surviving Eurasian forces will be supernaturally punished.

Asian alliances, however, will begin taking shape well in advance—and are even now beginning to move into their prophesied end-time configuration!

Table of Nations

The composition of the army that will come against the restored 12 tribes of Israel is clearly defined:

The account begins in Ezekiel 38:1-2: “And the word of the Lord came to me: Son of man, set your face against Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, of Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him” (The Amplified Bible).

Here is a great power that will challenge the very rule of Christ!

Ezekiel reveals that joined with Magog, Rosh, Meshech and Tubal in this confederacy will be Persia, Cush, Phut (incorrectly rendered “Libya” in the Authorized Version), Gomer and Togarmah (see verses 5-6).

Who are these peoples today? And what do these prophecies have to do with the future of South Asia?

With the exception of Persia, the names mentioned by Ezekiel are nowhere to be found as names of nations on world maps today. The names of the majority of the world's modern nations are of fairly recent origin. Nations and peoples have undergone sometimes dozens of name changes over the centuries and millennia of history.

In the Bible, nations are named after their ancestors. Nations are families grown big. The whole human family of today, according to the Bible, springs from Shem, Ham and Japheth, the sons of Noah (Gen. 10:32). The "Table of Nations" of Genesis 10 is an account of the origins of today's nations and races.

Through migrations, these diverse peoples overspread the entire earth. You can read the story in Genesis 11. In many cases we can accurately trace their travels from the starting point of Babel (in what today is Iraq) through the pages of history to their present locations.

Especially helpful in such research are the accounts of the classical historians and geographers (such as Herodotus); Persian, Tatar and Arabic histories (such as Meadows of Gold by al-Masudi); the works of early Jewish historians (such as Josephus); Chinese and other Asian traditions; and medieval European chronicles.

Modern scholars generally give little credence to the Table of Nations or to many of these early histories and traditions. Consequently they are ignorant of the true identities of many of the world's peoples today.

Let us look again at the names mentioned by Ezekiel. Where are these peoples found today?

Gog of the Land of Magog

Ruling over all these allied peoples is Gog. Gog (meaning "mountain" or "high") is described as a great prince, the political/military head of the vast region in question. Ezekiel pictures Gog as a guard and commander over the assembled peoples (38:7).

Along with the beast, the miracle-working false prophet (Rev. 16:13; 19:20), and the leaders of an Arab-Muslim confederacy, Gog is one of the major end-time personalities specifically mentioned in the Bible.

Gog is also a people, apparently a tribal subdivision of Magog. The original Gog was probably a son or grandson of Magog.

Ezekiel describes the end-time Gog as being of the land of Magog. How, then, do we identify Magog today? The Table of Nations lists Magog as the second son of Japheth, son of Noah.

Japheth's descendants are primarily Eurasian peoples. They include the East Slavs—Great Russians, Little Russians, White Russians—and the Mongoloid peoples of Asia outside of the Near East and the subcontinent of India.

Japheth's son Magog gradually become divided into two main branches. The western, Caucasian-looking Slavic branch is identified by the first-century Jewish historian Josephus and others as among the nomadic Scythian tribes north of the Black Sea in what today is the Soviet Union.

But there was also an eastern or Mongoloid branch of the Scythians that anciently inhabited the plains stretching all the way to north China. The Venetian traveler Marco Polo, who visited the Mongol realms in the 13th century, identified Magog as being part of the Munguls or Mongols. Other histories identify Magog with the Mandarin-speaking northern Chinese. (The Cantonese-speaking southern Chinese, incidentally, are an Asian branch of Javan, another of Japheth's sons.)

Which branch of Magog is intended in the prophecy of Ezekiel? The Magog of Ezekiel 38 and 39 is pictured as a people of a northern locality—i.e., the vast lands of the Soviet Union. Ezekiel describes Gog as coming "from the north parts" (39:2). The Soviet Union is far to the north of Palestine.

Moreover, Gog is described as the prince of Rosh, Meshech and Tubal, peoples clearly Russian by descent.

Russians—Great and White

The Hebrew word Rosh is translated "chief" in Ezekiel 38:2-3 in the Authorized Version. In Hebrew, the word for chief is Rosh. But in Ezekiel's prophecy the original Hebrew may also be a proper name.

Rosh is the ancient Hebrew name for the Russ ("blonds") who settled in the plains of Eastern Europe in the ninth century, A.D. They gave their name to the Russian nation. The people of Rosh are among the White Russians of Byelorussia today.

Living next to the people of Rosh are Meshech and Tubal. Both Meshech and Tubal are sons of Japheth (Gen. 10:2) and thus brothers of Magog. To Herodotus and other classical geographers and historians they were known as the Moskhi or Moschi and the Tibareni, occupying the region of the Caucasus between the Black and Caspian Seas. In Assyrian inscriptions they are the Muska and Tubla. Josephus calls them the Moschevi and Thobelites.

The descendants of Meshech (Moskhi) ultimately traveled into the lands north of the Black Sea, settling around Moscow. They gave their name to that city, as well as to the Moskva River and the state of Muscovy.

Part of Tubal also moved north, giving their name to the river Tobol and founding the Siberian city of Tobolsk. (Mongoloid branches of Tubal are found in Tibet, Nepal, Bhutan, Sikkim, the Indian state of Nagaland, Xinkiang or Chinese Turkestan, and parts of northern China and Manchuria, according to Arabic sources.)

Together, the Caucasian branches of Meshech and Tubal form the two distinctive branches of the Great Russians of today. The Great Russians are the largest ethnic group of the Soviet Union.

Future Russo/China Alliance?

Ultimately allied with the Russians under Gog will be "many people" (Ezek. 38:6, 9, 15). These could hardly exclude the militarily weaker Chinese and their Asiatic kinsmen—those eastern Magogites who "dwell securely in the coastlands" of the Pacific (39:6, The Amplified Bible).

The People's Republic of China—the "many people" of Ezekiel 38—is thus pictured as being linked with Gog in the last days. We can conclude that, one way or another, the breach that separates the Soviet Union and China will eventually be bridged. Beijing and Moscow will yet come to terms in spite of racial and political tensions!

Linked with the Russians and the other nations of the Orient in the vast end-time Asian confederacy will be Persia, Cush, Phut, Gomer and Togarmah (Ezek. 38:5-6). Who are these peoples today?

History and Scripture identify them as the very peoples of the South Asian region. Willingly or unwillingly, they will all be drawn into the Soviet sphere of influence in the years just ahead! Let us look at each one individually.

Let us begin with Persia (Ezek. 38:5), the most easily identified. Persia is simply another name for modern-day Iran.

The name Persia originated from a geographical region within southern Iran. This region was anciently known as Persis, the Greek form of Old Persian Parsa. Historically, the people of Iran have never used the name Persia for their country. They have always called it Iran, "Land of the Aryans." (Aryan is used to designate speakers of Indo-Iranian languages, as distinct from Semitic-speaking Arabs, for example.) The name Iran, however, did not come into widespread use in the west until the 1930s.

Iran today has a population of some 45 million. Iranians comprise nearly 70 percent of the country. Iranians, though Islamic, are totally distinct from the neighboring Arab peoples of the Middle East. They are a mixed people of the remnants of Media and Elam and other ancestors of Semitic and Hamitic stock.

Modern Iran also includes numerous minority groups of varying ethnic backgrounds: Turks, Kurds, Arabs, Baluchis, Armenians, Lurs, Azerbaijanis, Bakhtiaris and others.

There is growing evidence of a Soviet attempt to utilize to their own advantage disputes among certain of these ethnic minorities within Iran. Some observers see this activity as aimed at precipitating an internal crisis—a crisis that could provide an opportunity for Soviet military "intervention" in Iran.

An appeal for help by any pro-Soviet ethnic minorities in Iran could be answered by a movement of Soviet troops both from the Soviet Union across Iran's northern border and from Afghanistan across Iran's eastern border. Alternately, a pro-Soviet government might ultimately rise to power in Tehran and move the country into the Soviet orbit by nonviolent means.

Whatever the method, the prophecy of Ezekiel clearly indicates that Iran will eventually become linked with the Soviet Union. This is not to say that Iran or other South Asian nations will be incorporated into the Soviet Union as full-fledged republics. Rather, there will generally be only political linkage in the form of alliances or as vassal states dominated by Moscow.

Afghanistan, of course, is already in the Soviet orbit. A Soviet-installed regime today governs in Kabul.

Known anciently as Ariana and Bactria, and in the Middle Ages as Khorasan, Afghanistan lies in the very heart of Asia. Historically, the great invasions of the Indian subcontinent have been made through its strategic mountain passes.

Afghanistan's present racially mixed population is a reflection of its location astride the ancient trade and invasion routes of Central Asia. The bulk of the population (60 percent) is Pushtun or Pathan, the main tribes being the Durrani and the Ghilzai. Other groups represented are the Tajiks or Tadhziks (30 percent), Uzbeks (5 percent), Hazaras, Turkomans and Kirghiz.

The unifying factor amid all this ethnic diversity is religion. Afghanistan is almost wholly Islamic, mostly Sunni. Moslem armies had gained control of Afghanistan as early as A.D. 652.

The biblical origins of the Afghan peoples are widely varied. Some are traced to the sons of Japheth. (The Turkomans, for example, claim descent from Tiras, a son of Japheth.) Others descend from branches of the families of Joktan, of Gomer, of Uz and of Esau. Some Afghan chronicles even claim that elements of the Pathans are descended by intermarriage from King Saul of ancient Israel through his grandson Afghana.

Also predicted to cluster around the banner of Gog in the latter days are Cush and Phut (or Put). These peoples of Ezekiel 38:5 are generally found today in the region of India and Pakistan.

Cush was a son of Ham (Gen. 10:6). Cush is often translated "Ethiopia" in the Bible. But not all Cushites live in Ethiopia!

The descendants of Cush split into two major groups, the Eastern and Western Cushites. The Western Cushites are found in major areas of Black Africa today, including modern Ethiopia, now under Soviet influence.

The Eastern Cushites, on the other hand, are the brown peoples of central and southern India and part of Ceylon (Sri Lanka). They are represented by such groups as the Dravidians, Tamils and Telugus. Herodotus calls these Eastern Cushites "Asiatic Ethiopians." During their migrations, incidentally, these Asiatic Cushites gave their name to the Hindu Kush mountain range of Central Asia.

Interestingly, the names of Cush's sons Seba and Raamah (Gen. 10:7) have been perpetuated in the Hindu god Siva or Shiva (the destroyer) and the hero Rama (an avatar of the god Vishnu).

Phut was also a son of Ham. Phut is often translated "Libya" in the Bible, referring to the land of Libya in North Africa. As with Cush, there is also an Asiatic branch of the family of Phut or Put. It is that Asiatic branch that will eventually become associated with the U.S.S.R.

Along with elements of Shem, descendants of Phut (or Put) were among the Indo-Aryans who settled northern India and drove the Cushitic Dravidians into the south of India in the second millennium B.C. The warrior-caste Rajputs were rulers over the historic region of Rajputana, a former group of princely states comprising what is now Rajasthan state of northwestern India.

Elements of Phut are also found today in other states of northern and central India and in the neighboring countries of Pakistan and Bangladesh. The clear implication, therefore, is that these nations will ultimately become politically associated with the U.S.S.R.

India, along with China, will undoubtedly contribute heavily to the 200 million-man army of Revelation 9:16. After one-thousand-million-strong communist China, India has the largest population of any country in the world (more than 750 million!). India today is militarily the most powerful country in the South Asia region.

The nation of India is officially a neutralist state aspiring to a non-aligned stand between the superpowers. But in light of India's long and often tension-ridden borders with China and Pakistan, the Soviet Union has become necessary insurance for New Delhi. India leans on Soviet protection to counterbalance the alliance of China and Pakistan.

India is heavily dependent on the Kremlin for key military supplies. New Delhi has a friendship treaty with Moscow, signed in 1971. And the Soviet Union has become India's major trading partner.

The government of Pakistan—lying to the east and south of Soviet-occupied Afghanistan—is growing more nervous by the day.

Pakistan now stands as the only obstacle between the Soviet troops in Afghanistan and Moscow's goal of a warm-water Arabian Sea port. By virtue of the Soviet military presence in Afghanistan, the Kremlin is now in a prime position to exert political and military pressure on Pakistan.

The Muslim nation of Pakistan consists of four provinces, two on each side of the Indus River. The two provinces on the eastern side—Punjab and Sind—are firmly in the control of President Zia ul-Haq's government in Islamabad.

The two provinces west of the Indus—North-West Frontier and Baluchistan—are in a state of unrest. These provinces share a 1,200-mile border with Soviet-occupied Afghanistan. The Pakistani government fears that the Soviets may now use Afghanistan as a base to exploit the separationist sentiments among the ethnic groups in these two provinces. Trouble among these ethnic minorities is already straining Pakistan's unity.

Of primary concern is the long-simmering independence movement among the Baluchi tribesmen of western Pakistan. The Baluchis have long sought to unite with fellow tribesmen in southern Afghanistan and eastern Iran to form an independent state of Baluchistan.

There is strong evidence of deep Soviet involvement in this effort to carve out a separate Baluchi state. A pro-Russian vassal state in Baluchistan would effectively extend Soviet influence all the way south to the Arabian Sea. The Kremlin would at last have the warm-water ports that it has sought since the days of the czars.

As an added bonus, the Soviets would be in a position to control the major oil supply lines leading from the Persian Gulf!

Pushtu-speaking tribesmen in northwestern Pakistan and eastern Afghanistan have also long dreamed of their own independent state of Pushtunistan. These peoples, like the Baluchis, provide potentially fertile soil for Soviet revolutionary propaganda.

The predominantly Muslim nation of Bangladesh—once known as East Pakistan—broke away from Pakistan in a bloody civil war in 1971. Though Bangladesh officially adheres to the principle of nonalignment, its relations with the Soviet Union have grown steadily closer.

Also allied with Gog will be "Gomer, Togarmah and all their bands" (Ezek. 38:6).

Gomer was the eldest son of Japheth. Contrary to the assertions of many students of Bible prophecy, Gomer in this prophecy is not West Germany.

Who, then, is Gomer? Among the Oriental descendants of Gomer's three sons are found elements of the Turkic and Tatar (Turko-Mongol) peoples of the Asian steppes and deserts.

Many of these peoples—inhabiting the five socialist republics of Soviet Central Asia—have already been incorporated into the U.S.S.R. The nation of Mongolia, wedged between the Soviet Union and China in the region just south of Siberia, is a virtual Soviet satellite. The Turkic Uighurs of Xinkiang (western China) and the Mongols of Inner Mongolia are under Communist Chinese control.

Gomer's third son, Togarmah, is specifically mentioned in Ezekiel 38. Togarmah, in part, settled ancient Armenia. Descendants of Togarmah also migrated eastward into Mongolia, where they are today found mixed with elements of Magog. Togarmah's modern-day descendants are also found in China's Xinkiang province and in Russian Siberia or Tartary.

Ezekiel, however, speaks specifically of Togarmah "in the uttermost parts of the north" (38:6, Amplified). This is a clear reference to the Siberian branch of Togarmah.

But what of Southeast Asia?

The modern-day nations of this region are of the southern Mon-golid racial group. These nations are primarily Japhetic in descent, of the line of Gomer and, farther east, of Javan. Here communism has already deeply penetrated.

Vietnam is already a communist nation in the Soviet fold. After some two decades of fighting, the American-backed government of South Vietnam surrendered to Soviet-supported North Vietnamese forces in the spring of 1975. Within days the communist conquest of South Vietnam was effectively completed. Vietnam was officially reunited as a communist state in July 1976.

The government of neighboring Laos is an ally of Vietnam and the Soviet Union. Nearby Cambodia (Kampuchea) has been dominated by Vietnam since 1979.

Continuing Vietnamese military activity within Cambodia poses a potential threat to the security of Thailand to the north and west. Malaysia also sees a potential military menace from expansionist Vietnam. Adding to the uncertainty, small bands of communist guerrillas continue to roam the Thai-Malaysia border area.

In Burma, militarily active communist guerrillas are challenging the government in Rangoon. Insurgent uprisings among the country's ethnic minorities add to the instability in that nation. In Indonesia and the Philippines too, communist insurgency occasionally assails the authority of the central governments.

Most of Southeast Asia will undoubtedly find it difficult to withstand incessant communist pressure. Ultimately, prophecy reveals, the region will be forced into cooperating with the Soviet Union and her allies.

"I Am Against You!"

As we have seen, the coming Eurasian confederacy will devastate much of Western Europe. After Christ decimates the armies of all nations gathered at Armageddon, Gog will assemble a large army from among his surviving Eurasian forces. That army will attempt to impose its ideology on a restored Israel. But it will not succeed!

"Behold, I am against you, O Gog!" God declares (Ezek. 38:3). The fate of his armies is vividly portrayed: "You shall fall on the mountains of Israel, you and all your troops, and the peoples who are with you; I shall give you as food to every kind of predatory bird and beast of the field" (Ezek. 39:4, Amplified). The people of Israel will labor seven months burying the millions of Gog's dead (39:12). The survivors will know that God rules.

The demise of Gog and his allies will furnish a powerful witness to the nations of the world. "And I shall set My glory among the nations; and all the nations will see My judgment which I have executed," God declares (39:21, Amplified).

The people of Israel will utterly destroy the weapons carried by Gog's army (39:9-10). With the power of Gog irretrievably broken, the nations of the world will at last submit to the government of God. After 6,000 years of war and international strife, worldwide peace will finally become reality. "And they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more" (Mic. 4:3; Isa. 2:4).

South Asia—and the world—will at last know true peace! □
